

TRY TO MAKE YOUR OWN JAPANESE FURIN OR WIND CHIME

Wind chimes are a symbol of summer in Japan. Typically they are hung outside so people can enjoy the soothing sounds they make when the wind blows.

Thread beads, keys or old CDs onto at least five pieces of string. Attach these to a recycled paper cup or stick. Hang it in your garden, porch or balcony. Wait for a breeze and listen to the sounds.

